

Question 1:

What is the primary role of event listeners in JavaScript?

Ans: Capturing and responding to user interactions and browser actions

Question2:

Which method is commonly used to add event listeners to HTML elements in JavaScript?

Ans: `addEventListener`

Question3: What is the difference between `addEventListener` and `attachEvent` methods in JavaScript?

Ans: `addEventListener` is used for modern browsers, while `attachEvent` is used for older browsers

Question 4: What is the importance of specifying the event type before adding an event listener?

Ans: To ensure the event listener is added correctly