

Question 1: What is the primary purpose of form events in JavaScript?

Ans: To create interactive forms

Question 2: What is the event object in JavaScript?

Ans: An object that represents the event that occurred

Question 3: What is the change event in JavaScript?

Ans: Triggered when the value of a form element changes

Question 4: What is the focus event in JavaScript?

Ans: Triggered when a form element gains focus

Question 5: What is the input event in JavaScript?

Ans: Triggered when a form element's value changes

Question 6: What is the difference between an event listener and an event handler in JavaScript?

Ans: An event listener is a function that is called when an event occurs, while an event handler is a function that is called when an event is triggered