Question 1: What is the primary purpose of the Document Object Model (DOM) in JavaScript

Ans: To represent the structure of an HTML document

Question 2:Which of the following statements accurately describes the Document Object Model (DOM)?
Ans: The DOM stores information from HTML documents in JavaScript variables and allows for dynamic modification of the web page's structure and content.

Question 3:What is the difference between textContent and innerHTML in HTML manipulation?

Ans: 'textContent' is used to retrieve or set the text content of an element, while 'innerHTML' is used to retrieve or set the HTML content of an element.

Question 4:How do you create and access global variables in the DOM?

Ans: By using the window object