Question 1: What is the primary purpose of mouse events in JavaScript?
Ans: To handle user interactions with the page

Question 2: What is the difference between mouseover and mouseenter events in JavaScript?
Ans: Mouseover is triggered when the mouse enters an element or its children, while mouseenter is triggered only when the mouse enters the element itself.

Question 3: What is the purpose of the onpointermove event in JavaScript?
Ans: To handle all types of pointer movements

Question 4: What is the difference between mouse events and pointer events in JavaScript?
Ans: Mouse events are triggered by mouse movements, while pointer events are triggered by pen/stylus movements

Question 5: What is the purpose of the pointerdown event in JavaScript?
Ans: To handle all types of pointer clicks